Singapore Monday November 11 1985:

Singapore Facts and Pictures, 1994 The Scripting of A National History Lysa Hong, Jianli Huang, 2008-04-01

Rather than presenting another narrative of Singapore history The Scripting of a National History Singapore and Its Past studies the constructed nature of the history endorsed by the state which blurs the distinction between what happened in the past and how the state intends that past to be understood The People's Action Party PAP government's unbroken mandate to rule has come in no small part from the way it explains its lineage and record to Singaporeans The power vested in various aspects of Singapore's history is thus examined through a consideration of past and present politics The authors trace state discourses on Singapore history from the decision immediately after independence to recognize the nineteenth century British acquisition of the island as its founding moment to the 1980s and 1990s when an essentially Confucian heritage was recognized under the rubric of Asian values and finally to an emphasis on the history of racial fragility and harmony in response to the threat of terrorism in the twenty first century Embedded within these discourses is the story of the PAP as the heir of the economic dynamics of the pax Britannica as an exponent of the morality and righteousness of the Chinese scholar gentleman and as the firm hand that balances the interests of the majority Chinese against those of the minority populations particularly the Malays The authors examine the underlying template of Singapore history the negotiation with its immigrant past and the popularization of history through conscription of national heroes The chapters range from considering how political leaders claim to be historians by virtue of being the makers of history to the vicissitudes undergone by two originally private homes turned into symbols of Singapore's Chinese modernity The Scripting of a National History Singapore and Its Past is highly relevant not only to academics but also for the Singapore general reader interested to see what are meant to be received wisdoms for the citizenry interrogated in a well reasoned and engaging exercise as well as for an international readership to whom Singapore has become a fascinating enigma They may well be intrigued by the anxieties of being Singaporean Let the People Have Him: Chiam See Tong: The Early Years Loke Hoe Yeong, 2019-02-05

Selected by Mothership SG as one of the Top 10 local non fiction books of 2014 3rd Prize Winner of Popular Readers Choice Award 2015 English Adult Category Chiam See Tong b 1935 is Singapore's longest serving opposition politician A member of parliament for nearly three decades Chiam is also one of Singapore's most iconic influential and beloved political figures Through his efforts in shaping Potong Pasir into a model constituency the veteran statesman has greatly contributed towards an increasingly pluralistic Singapore When he first entered politics in 1976 there was not a single opposition member in Parliament As the founder of the Singapore Democratic Party and later the Singapore People's Party Chiam has long rallied for the need of an opposition as the essential democratic check on a one party system He is respected for his level headed and non confrontational stance and is the only opposition member to have received public apologies and out of court damages from cabinet ministers of Singapore's ruling People's Action Party Based on extensive interviews family documents and party archives Let the People Have Him is the first biography of an opposition politician from post independence Singapore a biography of a man who through his accomplishments and devotion struggled to build a fairer more balanced and diverse country Tracing the first half of a life fully lived this book sheds light on Chiam s circuitous and colourful route to Parliament at the age of 49 from his revolutionary family background to his days as a champion school swimmer from his political awakening in New Zealand to his stint as an inspiring school teacher in Malaysia from training as a lawyer to his cross continental romance with his wife Lina from standing as an independent candidate in 1976 to winning the Potong Pasir seat in 1984 as the leader of the fledging Singapore Democratic Party Let the People Have Him draws a humanistic picture of Chiam in his early days as his country changed around him before he was to change it while revealing the guiding values that have made this humble and unassuming man revered for generations to come India Rubber World and Electrical Trades Review John Robertson Dunlap, Henry Clemens Pearson, 1919 War without Mercy John Dower, 2012-03-28 WINNER OF THE NATIONAL BOOK CRITICS CIRCLE AWARD AN AMERICAN BOOK AWARD FINALIST A monumental history that has been hailed by The New York Times as one of the most original and important books to be written about the war between Japan and the United States In this monumental history Professor John Dower reveals a hidden explosive dimension of the Pacific War race while writing what John Toland has called a landmark book a powerful moving and evenhanded history that is sorely needed in both America and Japan Drawing on American and Japanese songs slogans cartoons propaganda films secret reports and a wealth of other documents of the time Dower opens up a whole new way of looking at that bitter struggle of four and a half decades ago and its ramifications in our lives today As Edwin O Reischauer former ambassador to Japan has pointed out this book offers a lesson that the postwar generations need most with eloquence crushing detail and power Official Gazette Philippines, 1985 The Department of State Bulletin , 1986 Eating Chilli Crab in the Anthropocene Matthew Schneider-Mayerson, 2022-08-13 In this era of climate crisis in which our very futures are at stake sustainability is a global imperative Yet we tend to associate sustainability nature and the environment with distant places science and policy The truth is that everything is environmental from transportation to taxes work to love cities to cuisine This book is the first to examine contemporary Singapore from an ecocultural lens looking at the ways that Singaporean life and culture is deeply entangled with the nonhuman lives that flourish all around us The authors represent a new generation of cultural critics and environmental thinkers who will inherit the future we are creating today From chilli crab to Tiger Beer Changi Airport to Pulau Semakau O levels to orang minyak films these essays offer fresh perspectives on familiar subjects prompting us to recognise the incredible urgency of climate change and the need to transform our ways of thinking acting learning living and governing so as to maintain a stable planet and a decent future Asian Survey , 1986 Defense & Foreign Affairs Gregory R.
