Governing the Bomb Hans Born, Bates Gill, Heiner Hänggi, 2010 Go nuclear or go zero as the international community stands at a nuclear crossroads a number of questions demand urgent attention How do established and emerging nuclear armed states manage their nuclear affairs Who commands and controls a country's nuclear forces What effect does the balance between secrecy and openness have on larger questions of security and democracy Governing Nuclear Weapons is grounded in the belief that the public's ability to hold nuclear armed states accountable for the security of their weapons is contingent on proper knowledge of domestic nuclear governance With a special emphasis on civilian control and democratic accountability it seeks to illuminate the structures and processes of nuclear weapons governance of eight nuclear armed states China France Russia the UK and the US as well as India Israel and Pakistan It examines the theoretical as well as practical functions and structures of those who possess the power to make nuclear decisions and those who have the practical means and physical opportunity to execute those decisions While the book assesses the whole spectrum of political oversight and control mechanisms in operation for each country including the roles and requirements of the executive the military and specialized civilian institutions it also takes a closer look at parliamentary institutions and civil society at large As nuclear terrorism proliferation and disarmament vie for the top slot on the global security agenda a comparative understanding of the various national nuclear discourses is no longer optional but required

Building a Road to Nuclear Disarmament Rizwana Abbasi, 2021-08 This book focuses on comprehending the contemporary global security environment creating a new roadmap for nuclear disarmament by creating a balance between deterrence supporters and disarmament advocates The author identifies the divide between competing approaches such as traditional security centric aspects and humanity centered disarmament perspectives tackling the complex question of how to balance some states requirements for effective nuclear deterrence with other states long term desire for a nuclear free world The book explores how new technologies such as cyber and AI advances are available to more countries than nuclear technology and could level the playing field for weaker nuclear weapons states It also looks into the issues which continue to be obstacles in the way of convincing the nuclear weapon states NWS on nuclear disarmament The author argues that the gap between deterrence supporters and disarmament advocates can be filled by creating a new environment for renewed consensus on achieving a world free of nuclear weapons This book provides a deeper understanding and critical analysis of how global evolving parallel traditional security and normative trends relating to nuclear weapons can be bridged in order to make the disarmament debate practically achievable This volume will be of great interest to students and scholars researchers policy makers NGOs and members of the diplomatic community in the fields of security studies strategic studies and nuclear policy

Strategic Trade Review Andrea Viski,2018-07-23 The Strategic Trade Review is a peer reviewed journal dedicated to strategic trade export controls and sanctions The sixth Spring Summer 2018 issue features articles on emerging technologies and export controls cryptosanctions export control practices in advanced countries proliferation finance defense exports and capacity building It also includes a Practitioners Perspectives section The Strategic Trade Review publishes articles from a global authorship The Review is an essential resource for researchers practitioners students policy makers and other stakeholders involved in trade and security Peace Research Peter Wallensteen,1988-11-02 Comprising essays by Peter Wallensteen this book presents an overview of the thematic development of peace research which has become one of the most dynamic and innovative areas of war and conflict studies Peace research began in the 1950s when centres were formed in the USA and Europe and today there are research institutes and departments on every continent with teaching and research programs in most countries and peace researchers contribute to the development of international studies development research and security analysis Prof Wallensteen has been a witness to much of this since forming the Department of Peace and Conflict Research at Uppsala University in the late 1960s and this book brings together thirteen of his articles with five new essays in one volume The book presents articles on such key issues in peace research as the causes of war conflict data conflict diplomacy non violent sanctions and third party diplomacy In this way it demonstrates how basic research can be conducted in fields often seen as unresearchable and too complicated to deal with This volume shows that it is a matter of developing definitions creating valid measures and finding ways of collecting information recognising that innovations of this kind require supportive research environments Furthermore the results are not only useful for the growth of research activity itself but for finding ways of dealing with actual conflicts Thus attention is also paid here to conflict prevention peace agreements sanctions and third party activity for preventing and ending armed conflict and building a lasting post war peace This book will be of great interest to all students of peace studies conflict resolution war and conflict studies development studies and IR security studies in general Russia's New State Armament Programme Richard Connolly,Mathieu Boulégué,2018 While Western observers should be prepared to see Russia s armed forces become more capable over the next decade they should avoid exaggerating the threat posed by these developments By 2027 the Russian armed forces are likely to be considerably better equipped than they are today Nevertheless one should not overstate the pace of probable modernization While some progress may be made in the development of new generation equipment the armed forces will probably still rely on a mix of legacy hardware and modernized Soviet systems alongside new designs Providing Russia with 21st century military capabilities and adapting its armed forces to today s challenges will require sustained investment in modernization efforts and military R D Strategic assessment 2020 Thomas F. Lynch III,2020

Irresolvable Norm Conflicts in International Law Valentin Jeutner, 2017 Many are familiar with the concept of a moral dilemma a situation where a person faces a choice between two mutually exclusive actions This book considers whether situations of this kind could and should exist within the sphere of international law ICIC 2020 Bedjo Santoso, Henny Pratiwi Adi, Heru Sulisty, Dyana Wijayan, Choiril Anwar, Ahamad Faosiy Ogunbado, 2020-12-14 We are delighted to introduce the proceedings of the 1st INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON ISLAMIC CIVILIZATION ICIC 2020 bringing together researchers academics experts and professionals in examining selected theme on Islamic Perspective of Sustainable Development and The Role of Islamic Economics In Today's Global Finance This event was held on 27 August 2020 virtually by Universitas Islam Sultan Agung in collaboration along with some Islamic universities in Indonesia and overseas The papers published in this proceeding are from multidisciplinary researches related to economy education humanities Islamic studies laws social sciences and health Each contributed paper was refereed before being accepted for publication The single blind peer reviewed was used in the paper selection Securitization Revisited Michael J. Butler, 2019-07-23 This book seeks to interrogate how contemporary policy issues become securitized and furthermore what the implications of this process are A generation after the introduction of the concept of securitization to the security studies field this book engages with how securitization and desecuritization works within and across a wide range of security domains including terrorism and counter terrorism climate change sexual and gender based violence inter state and intra state conflict identity and memory in various geographic and social contexts Blending theory and application the contributors to this volume drawn from different disciplinary ontological and geographic spaces orient their investigations around three common analytical objectives revealing deficiencies in and through applications of securitization considering securitization through speech acts and discourse as well as other mechanisms and exposing latent orthodoxies embedded in securitization research The volume demonstrates the dynamic and elastic quality of securitization and desecuritization as concepts that bear explanatory fruit when applied across a wide range of security issues actors and audiences It also reveals the deficiencies in restricting securitization research to an overly narrow set of issues actors and mechanisms This volume will be of great interest to scholars of critical security studies international security and International Relations Chapter 6 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license The Handbook of European Defence Policies and Armed Forces Hugo Meijer, Marco Wyss, 2018-06-22 The armed forces of Europe have undergone a dramatic transformation since the collapse of the Soviet Union The Handbook of European Defence Policies and Armed Forces provides the first comprehensive analysis of national security and defence policies strategies doctrines capabilities and military operations as well as the alliances and partnerships of European armed forces in response to the security challenges Europe has faced since the end of the cold war A truly cross European comparison of the evolution of national defence policies and armed forces remains a notable blind spot in the existing literature The Handbook of European Defence Policies and Armed Forces aims to fill this gap with fifty one contributions on European defence and international security from around the world The six parts focus on country based assessments of the evolution of the national defence policies of Europe s major medium and lesser powers since the end of the cold war the alliances and security partnerships developed by European states to cooperate in the provision of national security the security challenges faced by European states and their armed forces ranging from interstate through intra state and transnational the national security strategies and doctrines developed in response to these challenges the military capabilities and the underlying defence and technological industrial base brought to bear to support national strategies and doctrines and finally the national or multilateral military operations by European armed forces The contributions to The Handbook collectively demonstrate the fruitfulness of giving analytical precedence back to the comparative study of national defence policies and armed forces across Europe

Cybersecurity Governance in Latin America Carlos Solar,2023-01-01 Cybersecurity Governance in Latin America discusses how the massification of the Internet has exposed emerging democracies high tech vulnerabilities to cyber attacks and questions why states have decided to introduce policies and legislation facilitating the militarization of cyberspace Carlos Solar offers a comparative analysis using the cases of Argentina Brazil Chile Colombia Mexico and Venezuela to help navigate the changing security landscape and the growing risks found in the digital domain His analysis includes a review of civilian and military preparedness emphasizing the ongoing alliances with the world s superpowers to finally debate what are the side effects for peace and development in the Americas from the current cybersecurity rivalry between the United States and China Providing a much needed account of state technology affairs in the global south Cybersecurity Governance in Latin America challenges scholars and policymakers to rethink the protection of cyberspace to avoid unnecessarily sacrificing rights and freedoms in the name of national security

Regional Powers and Contested Leadership Hannes Ebert,Daniel Flesmes,2018-03-19 When do rising powers fail to establish legitimate regional leadership and instead face contestation by their regional challengers This book investigates how and why the BRICS Brazil Russia India China and South Africa project leadership in South America post Soviet Eurasia South and Southeast Asia and sub Saharan Africa respectively and in what ways their main regional challengers respond Based on a systematic conceptualization of the types and drivers of leadership and contestation the authors assess the impact of the rise of regional powers on weaker states security sovereignty and status as well as the consequences of contestation for regional economic development and stability and the regional powers bid for greater voice in global governance By illuminating the sources and effects of power politics in five regions that are increasingly pivotal for the emerging world order the volume offers a global comparative analysis of contemporary regional contested leadership that will interest scholars and students of international affairs foreign policy and area studies
