book contains detailed but lively accounts of the sisters' lives and work and is filled with black and white and color plates of their art. The Carmel Pine Cone: An illuminating and heroic work. Good writes vividly about how all three Brutons continued to make art until the very end of their lives. Jasmin Darznik, New York Times bestselling author of The Bohemians. For decades Margaret Esther and Helen Bruton have been relegated to a side note in California art history. Yet their work has found new appreciation in the 21st century and their fascinating lives and impressive artistic achievements are finally coming back into the light. Carmel Magazine. Educated at art schools in New York and Paris, the Brutons ran in elite artistic circles and often found themselves in the company of luminaries including Frida Kahlo, Diego Rivera, Henri Matisse, Armin Hansen, Maynard Dixon, Imogen Cunningham, and Ansel Adams. Their contemporaries described the sisters as geniuses for they were bold experimenters who excelled in a wide variety of mediums and styles, each eventually finding a specialization that expressed her best. Margaret turned to oil paintings, watercolors, and terrazzo tabletops. Esther became known for her murals, etchings, fashion illustrations, and decorative screens, and Helen lost herself in large scale mosaics. Although celebrated for their achievements during the 1920s and 1930s, the Brutons cared little about fame, failing to promote themselves or their work. Over time, the famous Bruton sisters and their impressive art careers were nearly forgotten. Now, for the first time, Sisters in Art reveals the contributions of Margaret Esther and Helen Bruton as their works continue to inspire and find new appreciation today.

The Art of Memoir Mary Karr, 2015-09-15. Credited with sparking the current memoir explosion, Mary Karr's The Liars Club spent more than a year at the top of the New York Times list. She followed with two other smash bestsellers, Cherry and Lit, which were critical hits as well. For thirty years, Karr has also taught the form, winning teaching prizes at Syracuse. The writing program there produced such acclaimed authors as Cheryl Strayed, Keith Gessen, and Koren Zailckas. In The Art of Memoir, she synthesizes her expertise as professor and therapy patient, writer and spiritual seeker, recovered alcoholic, and black belt sinner, providing a unique window into the mechanics and art of the form that is as irreverent, insightful, and entertaining as her own work in the genre. Anchored by excerpts from her favorite memoirs and anecdotes from fellow writers' experience, The Art of Memoir lays bare Karr's own process. Plus all those inside stories about how she dealt with family and friends get told, and the dark spaces in her own skull probed in depth. As she breaks down the key elements of great literary memoir, she breaks open our concepts of memory and identity and illuminates the cathartic power of reflecting on the past. Anybody with an inner life or complicated history, whether writer or reader, will relate. Joining such classics as Stephen King's On Writing and Anne Lamott's Bird by Bird, The Art of Memoir is an elegant and accessible exploration of one of today's most popular literary forms, a tour de force from an accomplished master pulling back the curtain on her craft.
