Queer Cinema in the World Karl Schoonover,Rosalind Galt,2016-11-17 Proposing a radical vision of cinema s queer globalism Karl Schoonover and Rosalind Galt explore how queer filmmaking intersects with international sexual cultures geopolitics and aesthetics to disrupt dominant modes of world making Whether in its exploration of queer cinematic temporality the paradox of the queer popular or the deviant ecologies of the queer pastoral

Schoonover and Galt reimagine the scope of queer film studies. The authors move beyond the gay art cinema canon to consider a broad range of films from Chinese lesbian drama and Swedish genderqueer documentary to Bangladeshi melodrama and Bolivian activist video. Schoonover and Galt make a case for the centrality of queerness in cinema and trace how queer cinema circulates around the globe institutionally via film festivals, online consumption, and human rights campaigns, but also affectively in the production of a queer sensorium. In this account, cinema creates a uniquely potent mode of queer worldliness, one that disrupts normative ways of being in the world and forges revised modes of belonging.

The State of Post-Cinema Malte Hagener, Vinzenz Hediger, Alena Strohmaier, 2016-11-30. This book approaches the topic of the state of post cinema from a new direction. The authors explore how film has left the cinema as a fixed site and institution and now appears ubiquitous in the museum and on the street, on planes and cars, and on new digital communication platforms of various kinds. The authors investigate how film has become more than cinema, no longer a medium that is based on the photochemical recording and replay of movement. Most often, the state of post cinema is conceptualized from the high end of the most advanced technology: discussions focus on performance capture and digital 3D/4K projection and industrial light magic. Here, the authors' approach is focused on the low end circulation of filmic images. This includes informal networks of exchange and transaction such as p2p networks, video platforms, and so-called piracy, with a special focus on the Middle East and North Africa, where political and social transformations make new forms of circulation and presentation particularly visible.
