Situating Everyday Life Practices And Places:

Situating Everyday Life Sarah Pink, 2012 The study of everyday life is fundamental to our understanding of modern society This agenda setting book provides a coherent interdisciplinary way to engage with everyday activities and environments Arguing for an innovative ethnographic approach it uses detailed examples based in real world and digital research to bring its theories to life The book focuses on the sensory embodied mobile and mediated elements of practice and place as a route to understanding wider issues By doing so it convincingly outlines a robust theoretical and methodological approach to understanding contemporary everyday life and activism A fresh timely book this is an excellent resource for students and researchers of everyday life activism and sustainability across the social sciences Provided by publisher The Dynamics of Social Practice Elizabeth Shove, Mika Pantzar, Matt Watson, 2012-05-17 Everyday life is defined and characterised by the rise transformation and fall of social practices Using terminology that is both accessible and sophisticated this essential book guides the reader through a multi level analysis of this dynamic In working through core propositions about social practices and how they change the book is clear and accessible real world examples including the history of car driving the emergence of frozen food and the fate of hula hooping bring abstract concepts to life and firmly ground them in empirical case studies and new research Demonstrating the relevance of social theory for public policy problems the authors show that the everyday is the basis of social transformation addressing questions such as how do practices emerge exist and die what are the elements from which practices are made how do practices recruit practitioners how are elements practices and the links between them generated renewed and reproduced Precise relevant and persuasive this book will inspire students and researchers from across the social sciences Elizabeth Shove is Professor of Sociology at Lancaster University Mika Pantzar is Research Professor at the National Consumer Research Centre Helsinki Matt Watson is Lecturer in Social and Cultural Geography at University of Sheffield Doing Sensory Ethnography Sarah Pink, 2015-02-09 This bold agenda setting title continues to spearhead interdisciplinary multisensory research into experience knowledge and practice Drawing on an explosion of new cutting edge research Sarah Pink uses real world examples to bring this innovative area of study to life She encourages us to challenge revise and rethink core components of ethnography including interviews participant observation and doing research in a digital world The book provides an important framework for thinking about sensory ethnography stressing the numerous ways that smell taste touch and vision can be interconnected and interrelated within research Bursting with practical advice on how to effectively conduct and share sensory ethnography this is an important original book relevant to all branches of social sciences and humanities Culture and Everyday Life Andy Bennett, 2005-07-21 Bennett provides a well organized very readable and interesting discussion of a number of significant everyday cultural forms and I am confident student readers will find the book very valuable Barry Smart University of Portsmouth Culture and Everyday Life provides students with a comprehensive overview of theoretical models issues and examples of contemporary cultural practice Bennett begins by summarising and situating in everyday settings the key theoretical models applied in the study of existing cultural practices This entails a systematic study of how academic thinking about mass culture has changed from critical accounts of early mass cultural theorists to radical postmodernist critiques of mass cultural accounts and to the cultural turn which explored how various social identities are culturally constructed Following this are themed chapters that cover a particular aspect of late modern culture such as media music fashion tourism and counter cultural ideologies and movements In each case a comprehensive literature review is provided and its theoretical and empirical relevance to our understanding of the relationship between culture and everyday life in contemporary society is explained Lucid meticulous and illustrated with a host of examples this is a superb text for teaching and research in the Sociology of Culture and Cultural Studies Routledge Handbook on Consumption Margit

Keller,Bente Halkier,Terhi-Anna Wilska,Monica Truninger,2017-02-10 Consumption research is burgeoning across a wide range of disciplines The Routledge Handbook on Consumption gathers experts from around the world to provide a nuanced overview of the latest scholarship in this expanding field At once ambitious and timely the volume provides an ideal map for those looking to position their work find new analytic insights and identify research gaps With an intuitive thematic structure and resolutely international outlook it engages with theory and methodology markets and businesses policies politics and the state and culture and everyday life It will be essential reading for students and scholars across the social and economic sciences Psychology and the Conduct of Everyday Life Ernst Schraube,Charlotte Højholt,2015-08-11 Psychology and the Conduct of Everyday Life moves psychological theory and research practice out of the laboratory and into the everyday world Drawing on recent developments across the social and human sciences it examines how people live as active subjects within the contexts of their everyday lives using this as an analytical basis for understanding the dilemmas and contradictions people face in contemporary society Early chapters gather the latest empirical research to explore the significance of context as a cross disciplinary critical tool they include a study of homeless Moroccan men reaffirming their cultural identity via gardening and a look at how the dilemmas faced by children in difficult situations can provide insights into social conflict at school Later chapters examine the interplay between everyday life around the world and contemporary global phenomena such as the rise of the debt economy the hegemony of the labor market and the increased reliance on digital technology in educational settings The book concludes with a consideration of how social psychology can deepen our understanding of how we conduct our lives and offer possibilities for collective work on the resolution of social conflict Structures and

Architecture. A Viable Urban Perspective? Marie Frier Hvejsel,Paulo J.S. Cruz,2022-07-07 Structures and Architecture A Viable Urban Perspective contains extended abstracts of the research papers and prototype submissions presented at the Fifth International Conference on Structures and Architecture ICSA2022 Aalborg Denmark 6-8 July 2022 The book 578 pages also includes a USB with the full texts of the papers 1448 pages The contributions on creative and scientific aspects in the conception and construction of structures as architecture and on the role of advanced digital industrial and craft based technologies in this matter represent a critical blend of scientific technical and practical novelties in both fields Hence as part of the proceedings series Structures and Architecture the volume adds to a continuous exploration and development of the synergetic potentials of the fields of Structures and Architecture With each volume further challenging the conditions problems and potentials related to the art practice and theory of teaching researching designing and building structures as vehicles towards a viable architecture of the urban environment The volumes of the series appear once every three years in tandem with the conferences organized by the International Association of Structures and Architecture and are intended for a global readership of researchers practitioners and students including architects structural and construction engineers builders and building consultants constructors material suppliers planners urban designers anthropologists economists sociologists artists product manufacturers and other professionals involved in the design and realization of architectural structural and infrastructural projects

The Role of Non-State Actors in the Green Transition Jens Hoff, Quentin Gausset, Simon Lex, 2019-09-02 This book argues that there is no way to make progress in building a sustainable future without extensive participation of non state actors The volume explores the contribution of non state actors to a sustainable transition starting with citizens and communities of different kinds and ending with cities and city networks The authors analyse social cultural political and economic drivers and barriers for this transition from individual behaviour to structural restraints and investigate interplay between the two Through a series of wide ranging case studies from the UK Australia Germany Italy and Denmark and a number of comparative case studies the volume provides an empirically and theoretically robust argument that highlights the need to develop widen and scale up collective action and community based engagement if the transition to sustainability is to be successful This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of climate change sustainability and environmental policy

Architectural Anthropology Marie Stender, Claus Bech-Danielsen, Aina Landsverk Hagen, 2021-07-19 This book prompts architects and anthropologists to think and act together In order to fully grasp the relationship between human beings and their built environments and design more livable and sustainable buildings and cities in the future we need new cross disciplinary approaches combining anthropology and architecture This is neither anthropology of architecture nor ethnography for architects but a new approach beyond these positions Architectural Anthropology The anthology gathers contributions from leading researchers from various Nordic universities architectural schools and architectural firms as well as prominent international scholars like Tim Ingold Alena Yaneva and Sarah Pink all exploring developing and innovating the cross disciplinary field between anthropology and architecture Several contributions are co written by architects and anthropologists merging approaches from the two disciplines in order to fully explore the dynamics of lived space Through a broad range of empirical examples methodological approaches and theoretical reflections the anthology provides inspiration and tools for scholars students and practitioners working with lived space The first part focusses on homes walls and boundaries the second on urban space and public life and the third on processes of creativity participation and design Design Ethnography Sarah Pink,Vaike Fors,Debora Lanzeni,Melisa Duque,Shanti

Sumartojo,Yolande Strengers,2022-06-30 This book advances the practice and theory of design ethnography It presents a methodologically adventurous and conceptually robust approach to interventional and ethical research design practice and engagement The authors specialising in design ethnography across the fields of anthropology sociology human geography pedagogy and design research draw on their extensive international experience of collaborating with engineers designers creative practitioners and specialists from other fields They call for and demonstrate the benefits of ethnographic and conceptual attention to design as part of our personal and public everyday lives society institutions and activism Design Ethnography is essential reading for researchers scholars and students seeking to reshape the way we research live and design ethically and responsibly into yet unknown futures Textures of Belonging Andreea Racles,2021-07-16 The longstanding European conception that Roma and non Roma are separated by unambiguous socio cultural distinctions has led to the construction of Roma as non belonging others Challenging this conception Textures of Belonging explores how Roma negotiate and feel belonging at the everyday level Inspired by material culture sensorial anthropology and human geography approaches this book uses ethnographic research to examine the role of domestic material forms and their sensorial qualities in nurturing connections with people and places that transcend socio political boundaries Teaching

Western American Literature Brady Harrison,Randi Lynn Tanglen,2020-06-01 In this volume experienced and new college and university level teachers will find practical adaptable strategies for designing or updating courses in western American literature and western studies Teaching Western American Literature features the latest developments in western literary research and cultural studies as well as pedagogical best practices in course development Contributors provide practical models and suggestions for courses and assignments while presenting concrete strategies for teaching works both inside and outside the canon In addition Brady Harrison and Randi Lynn Tanglen have assembled insights from pioneering western studies instructors with workable strategies and practical advice for translating this often complex material for classrooms from freshman writing courses to graduate seminars Teaching Western American Literature reflects the cutting edge of western American literary study featuring diverse approaches allied with women s gender queer environmental disability and Indigenous studies and providing instructors with entr e into classrooms of leading scholars in the field Praxeological

Political Analysis Michael Jonas,Beate Littig,2016-11-03 With the interest in practice theory and praxeology on the rise praxeology can be considered an emerging new methodological as well as theoretical paradigm which successfully overcomes epistemological dichotomies of conventional approaches The articles in this volume serve as starting points for rendering contemporary practice theory approaches useful for the analysis of political events and processes without reducing the political aspect a priori to the formal policy sphere In this context Praxeological Political Analysis demonstrates that praxeological research is now increasingly addressing issues which are considered virulent in for instance the consumer sustainability or political spheres Following on from this key focus on political analysis this title also seeks to expand the current status of primarily political science adoptions of practice theory approaches to the analysis of predominantly narrowly defined political practices Written with an explicit focus on diverse political aspects and dimensions in the performative enactment of social practices this title will appeal to post graduate students and scholars interested in sociology of politics social and public policy development in social theory and political research methods Placing the Future

Johannes Glückler,Matthias Garschagen,Robert Panitz,2025-06-07 This open access book offers a fresh perspective on the uncertainties of the future that humanity faces Leading scholars from the fields of future studies planning geography history sociology design and the humanities sensitize for the intricate role of geography in building knowledge to anticipate probable to imagine alternative and to enact desirable futures Part I knowing the future explores strategies for anticipating possible futures such as foresight methods scenarios and guiding images This section underscores the importance of cultivating future consciousness to confront societal denial of looming threats like environmental crises Part II envisioning the future delves into various ways societies imagine their futures exploring topics like the future of food post growth economies extra terrestrial futures and even human self extinction to reveal how futurist scenarios can inform decision making and proactive planning Part III enacting the future focuses on the performative aspects of futuring The authors in this section examine practices such as designing performing advising and governing that are aimed at transforming desired futures into present realities As part of a series on the interdisciplinary nexus between knowledge and space this book is an essential resource for researchers policy makers planners students and practitioners in the fields of sustainability future studies regional development and governance Lee Miller's Surrealist Eye Lynn Hilditch,2022-11-14 American born artist Lee Miller 1907

1977 has been increasingly championed by scholars and curators for her Surrealism inspired photographs Her captivating images of Paris in the late 1920s and early 1930s her dreamlike portraits of desert landscapes and sexually suggestive architecture taken in Egypt in the mid 1930s and her witty yet often disturbing photographs of the Second World War and its aftermath have been widely discussed However while popular interest in Miller s colourful life and photographic work has been rapidly growing during the past forty years her true worth as a prominent Surrealist artist has been somewhat overlooked This new collection of essays addresses this issue revalidating Lee Miller s Surrealist position not simply as a muse friend and collaborator with the Surrealists but as one of the twentieth century s most important and influential female Surrealist artists Transcultural Italies Charles Burdett,Loredana Polezzi,Barbara Spadaro,2020 The history of Italian culture stems from multiple experiences of mobility and migration which have produced a range of narratives inside and outside Italy This collection interrogates the dynamic nature of Italian identity and culture focussing on the concepts and practices of mobility memory and translation It adopts a transnational perspective offering a fresh approach to the study of

Italy and of Modern Languages Children's Lifeworlds in a Global City: Melbourne Clare Bartholomaeus, Nicola Yelland, 2023-05-05 This book examines the connections between policy school experiences and everyday activities of children growing up in the global city of Melbourne Australia It provides an in depth consideration of Melbourne primary school children s lifeworlds exploring everyday stories and practices inside and outside of school This includes consideration of the diverse ways that educational success may be understood in the context of Melbourne productively moving beyond a narrow focus only on academic achievement Situated alongside policy and curriculum analysis the book draws on research in Melbourne Year 4 primary school classrooms in the form of student completed surveys classroom ethnographies and student responses to a learning dialogues activity as well as video re enactments of out of school life Through this it explores key aspects of children s lifeworlds with a focus on school timetabling and pedagogical encounters school engagement and belonging and activities and everyday routines outside of school This book offers a comprehensive and holistic exploration of children s lifeworlds in Melbourne drawing connections between children s lives inside and outside of school and the broader policy contexts Embodied Violence and Agency in Refugee Regimes Sabine Bauer-Amin, Leonardo Schiocchet, Maria Six-Hohenbalken, 2022-09-01 Multiple refugee regimes govern the lives of forced migrants simultaneously but in an often conflicting way As a mechanism of inclusion exclusion they tend to engender the violence they sought to dissipate Protection and control channel agency through mechanisms of either tutelage and victimisation or criminalisation This book contrasts multiple groups of refugees and refugee regimes revealing the inherent coercive violence of refugee regimes from displacement and expulsion to stereotypification and exclusion in host countries and academic knowledge essentialisation This violence is international national society based internalised and embodied and it urgently needs due scholarly attention

Couple Relationships in the 21st Century Jacqui Gabb, Janet Fink, 2017-08-26 This book presents an incisive and engaging account of love intimacy and personal life in contemporary Western society The authors draw on rich qualitative and large scale survey data to explore how couples communicate with each other negotiate the pressures and pleasures of parenthood and the vagaries of sexual desire and intimacy across life course Focusing on the everyday Couple Relationships in the 21st Century unpicks the ordinary and often mundane relationship work that goes into sustaining a relationship over time breaking down the dichotomy between enduring relationships of quality and good enough or endured relationships It contests the separation of couples into distinct relationship types defined through age parenthood or sexuality Looking through the lens of relationship practices it is clear that there is no normal couple couples are what couples do With a foreword by Dr Reenee Singh Director London Intercultural Couples Centre and Co Director Tavistock Family Therapy and Systemic Research Centre this new extended edition provides an invaluable critical insight on contemporary experiences of coupledom and will be essential reading for scholars and students clinicians working in couple and family therapy and those involved in relationship support services Digital Ethnography Sarah Pink, Heather Horst, John Postill, Larissa

Hjorth, Tania Lewis, Jo Tacchi, 2015-10-09 This sharp innovative book champions the rising significance of ethnographic research on the use of digital resources around the world. It contextualises digital and pre-digital ethnographic research and demonstrates how the methodological, practical and theoretical dimensions are increasingly intertwined. Digital ethnography is central to our understanding of the social world; it can shape methodology and methods and provides the technological tools needed to research society. The authoritative team of authors clearly set out how to research localities, objects and events as well as providing insights into exploring individuals or communities, lived experiences, practices and relationships. The book defines a series of central concepts in this new branch of social and cultural research. Challenges existing conceptual and analytical categories. Showcases new and innovative methods. Theorises the digital world in new ways. Encourages us to rethink pre-digital practices, media and environments. This is the ideal introduction for anyone intending to conduct ethnographic research in today's digital society.
