66 Days Adrift Bill Butler, 2005-02-08 The author chronicles his and his wife s nine desperate weeks adrift in the Pacific on a six foot raft twelve hundred miles from land with little food and surrounded by sharks after their intended circumnavigation of the globe was cut short by a whale attack upon their sloop 438 Days Jonathan Franklin, 2015-11-17 Declared the best survival book in a decade by Outside Magazine 438 Days is the true story of the man who survived fourteen months in a small boat drifting seven thousand miles across the Pacific Ocean On November 17 2012 two men left the coast of Mexico for a weekend fishing trip in the open Pacific That night a violent storm ambushed them as they were fishing eighty miles offshore As gale force winds and ten foot waves pummeled their small open boat from all sides and nearly capsized them captain Salvador Alvarenga and his crewmate cut away a two mile long fishing line and began a desperate dash through crashing waves as they sought the safety of port Fourteen months later on January 30 2014 Alvarenga now a hairy wild bearded and half mad castaway washed ashore on a nearly deserted island on the far side of the Pacific He could barely speak and was unable to walk He claimed to have drifted from Mexico a journey of some seven thousand miles A gripping saga Daily Mail 438 Days is the first ever account of one of the most amazing survival stories in modern times Based on dozens of hours of exclusive interviews with Alvarenga his colleagues search and rescue officials the remote islanders who found him and the medical team that saved his life 438 Days is not only an intense immensely absorbing read Booklist but an unforgettable study of the resilience will ingenuity and determination required for one man to survive more than a year lost and adrift at sea

Skeletons on the Zahara Dean King, 2004-02-16 b A masterpiece of historical adventure ISkeletons on the Zahara The western Sahara is a baking hot and desolate place home only to nomads and their camels and to locusts snails and thorny scrub and its barren and ever changing coastline has baffled sailors for centuries In August 1815 the US brig Commerce was dashed against Cape Bojador and lost although through bravery and quick thinking the ship s captain James Riley managed to lead all of his crew to safety What followed was an extraordinary and desperate battle for survival in the face of human hostility starvation dehydration death and despair Captured robbed and enslaved the sailors were dragged and driven through the desert by their new owners who neither spoke their language nor cared for their plight Reduced to drinking urine flayed by the sun crippled by walking miles across burning stones and sand and losing over half of their body weights the sailors struggled to hold onto both their humanity and their sanity To reach safety they would have to overcome not only the desert but also the greed and anger of those who would keep them in captivity From the cold waters of the Atlantic to the searing Saharan sands from the heart of the desert to the heart of man

Skeletons on the Zahara is a spectacular odyssey through the extremes and a gripping account of courage brotherhood and survival Ruthless River Holly FitzGerald, 2017-05-30 A stunning debut a Departures original publication The ultimate survival story a wild ride the wildest down a South American river in the thick of the Amazon Basin a true and thrilling adventure of a young married couple who survive a plane crash only to later raft hundreds of miles across Peru and Bolivia ending up in a channel to nowhere a dead end so flooded there is literally no land to stand on Their raft a mere four logs separates them from the piranha and caiman infested water until they finally realize that there is no way out but to swim

Vintage Original Holly FitzGerald and her husband Fitz married less than two years set out on a yearlong honeymoon adventure of a lifetime backpacking around the world Five months into the trip their plane crash lands in Peru at a penal colony walled in by jungle and their blissfully romantic journey turns into a terrifying nonstop labyrinth of escape and survival On a small soon ravaged raft that quickly becomes their entire universe through dangerous waters alive with deadly animals and fish their only choice to continue on despite the rush of insects swarming them by day the sounds of encroaching predators at night Without food or means of communication with no one to hear their cries for help or on a search and rescue expedition to find them the author and her husband make their way fighting to conquer starvation and navigate the brute force of the river their only hope for survival in spite of hunger and weakening resolve to somehow miraculously hang on and find their way east to a large riverside town before it is too late
