Snow Crash Neal Stephenson, 1993 Recently resigned from his job as the coolest samurai sword toting pizza delivery guy in the world Hiro has had to fall back on his old hi tech scavenger ways Not that he s a nobody on the virtual street one of the founders of The Black Sun he helped write the rule book for the digital Metaverse Which is why he s so confused when he s offered a cyber drug called Snow Crash cos there are no such things as drugs in their computer generated world And yet here it is complete with devastating side effects Who could have made it And what the hell does it actually do and Bureaucrats Paul Nadasdy, 2003 Winner of the Julian Steward Award Based on three years of ethnographic research in the Yukon this book examines contemporary efforts to restructure the relationship between aboriginal peoples and the state in Canada Although it is widely held that land claims and co management two of the most visible and celebrated elements of this restructuring will help reverse centuries of inequity this book challenges this conventional wisdom arguing that land claims and co management may be less empowering for First Nation peoples than is often supposed The book examines the complex relationship between the people of Kluane First Nation the land and animals and the state It shows that Kluane human animal relations are at least partially incompatible with Euro Canadian notions of property and knowledge Yet these concepts form the conceptual basis for land claims and co management respectively. As a result these processes necessarily end up taking for granted and so helping to reproduce existing power relations First Nation peoples participation in land claim negotiations and co management have forced them at least in some contexts to adopt Euro Canadian perspectives toward the land and animals They have been forced to develop bureaucratic infrastructures for interfacing with the state and they have had to become bureaucrats themselves learning to speak and act in uncharacteristic ways Thus land claims and co management have helped undermine the very way of life they are supposed to be protecting This book speaks to critical issues in contemporary anthropology First Nations law and resource management It moves beyond conventional models of colonialism in which the state is treated as a monolithic entity and instead explores how state power is reproduced through everyday bureaucratic practices including struggles over the production and use of knowledge The book will be of interest to anthropologists and others studying the nature of aboriginal state relations in Canada and elsewhere as well as those Ski-Doo '70 Bombardier Limited, 1969 interested in developing an ethnography of the state Backpacker ,2004-03 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader s doorstep inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often The authority on active adventure Backpacker is the world's first GPS enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails camping gear and survival tips they publish Backpacker's Editors Choice Awards an industry honor recognizing design feature and product innovation has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured Popular Science, 1975-02 Popular Science gives our readers the
