Singapore Thursday 17 November 1983:

An Arms Race in Post-cold War Southeast Asia Amitav Acharya, 1994 In the prevailing climate of uncertainty and apprehension about Southeast Asia's security outlook in the post Cold War era this study looks at the question of whether there is an impending arms race in the region It examines the factors behind the recent trends towards increased defence spending and force modernisation in countries in the region and what efforts should and can be undertaken to ensure that this build up does not become a threat to regional security and stability Pakistan & Gulf Economist, 1983 UNDOC, Current Index, 1984 Malaysian Politics Under Mahathir Diane K. Mauzy, R. S. Milne, 2002-01-22 A hard hitting and readable book which examines Mahathir's character his ideas and policies and relates them to the social economic and political setting inside Malaysia Up until recently high rates of economic growth and a striking reduction in poverty have been the hallmarks of this vibrant Tiger economy Mahathir's success has now been placed in jeopardy by the recent economic crisis and his rule is coming under hostile scrutiny As one of the most controversial political figures in South east Asia Mahathir's success at managing ethnic tensions policies of industrialization modernization and foreign policy are explored as are his grandiose projects his human rights record and approach to corruption Milne and Mauzy leading authors in this field assess Mahathir's rule within this context as well as the abrupt dismissal from office arrest and trial of Anwar Ibrahim Mahathir's deputy in late 1998

The Roots of Resilience Meredith L. Weiss, 2020-08-15 In The Roots of Resilience Meredith L Weiss examines governance from the ground up in the world's two most enduring electoral authoritarian or hybrid regimes Singapore and Malaysia where politically liberal and authoritarian features blend evading substantive democracy Weiss explains that while key attributes of these regimes differ affecting the scope character and balance among national parties and policies local machines and personalized linkages the similarity in the overall patterns in these countries confirms the salience of those dimensions The Roots of Resilience shows that high levels of authoritarian acculturation amplifying the political payoffs of what parties and politicians actually provide their constituents explain why electoral turnover alone is insufficient for real regime change in either state Governing Singapore Raj Vasil, 2020-08-27 Singapore has its critics but the city state has achieved remarkable successes as a result of the voluntary trade off of certain political rights for economic and social progress In Governing Singapore Raj Vasil supports this national bargain He argues that in Asian new states like Singapore economic and social under development as well as ethnic diversity and divisions make it impossible for Western liberal democracy to function effectively as an instrument of popular rule The problems of under development faced by Asian new states since decolonisation and independence continue to prove that democracy alone is not enough national development and the need to adapt democracy to economic and social realities are equally important Through reconciling democracy with national development Singapore has transformed from a poor backward Third World island into a prosperous and dynamic First World nation Today Singapore is far better prepared for greater democratisation and increased popular participation Policing Marital Violence in Singapore Ganapathy Narayanan,2008 Why have years of police reform in Singapore not produced significant changes in improving the policing of marital violence is the fundamental question raised by this volume Carefully exploring the police response to marital violence in Singapore while paying due attention to the particular culture and historical context in place the author reframes the questions about the problem of intimate violence The book goes into the ramifications for the criminal justice system particularly into the issues of policing safety and protection of victims from such violence A careful documentation of the reform process but also the resistance encountered within the police organisation especially by the rank and file police Chronicle of Singapore,

1959-2009 Peter H. L. Lim,2009 This lavishly illustrated volume captures the entire dramatic sweep of Singapore's modern history from its declaration of independence in 1959 to today Organised in chronological order with each year's coverage starting with a succinct summary of its key events Chronicle of Singapore covers not only the nation's defining political and economic events but also the more human side of Singapore sports fashion music the arts architecture and culture giving readers the broadest possible coverage Anyone who has visited or lived in this most unique of modern city nations will be enthralled by this pictorial and narrative history Economic Empowerment Of Women In The Islamic World: Theory And Practice Toseef Azid,Jennifer L Ward-batts,2020-06-22 The book Economic Empowerment of Women in the Islamic World discusses the economic social and political rights and status of women in Islam which is theoretically given by the Islamic Jurisprudence Shariah law The chapters in this volume will address historical practices in comparison to the status of women in the contemporary Muslim world Men and women in Islam regardless of their age social class and education are equal as citizens and individuals but not identical in their rights and responsibilities It can be observed from Islamic history that in the early age of Islam women were given full confidence trust and high responsibilities in leadership educational guidance and decision making This volume will try to clarify the confusion in the status of the women in Islam that is presented by the media as it is assumed that theoretical Islamic empowerment of women bears little relation to the real conditions of women in modern Muslim societies It has been widely claimed in the media that Muslim women suffer more than men in Muslim societies and communities in terms of insecurity domestic abuse and low access to education and medical care It is also stated in the press and media that absence of good governance also results in gender inequality and violation of the rights of Muslim women This volume also aims to provide the solutions for the empowerment of women in the Islamic world We assumed that without good governance the status of women is not likely to improve Muslim women have the potential to play a fundamental role in curbing corruption social ills violence and crime in the Muslim world This volume will make the case that in order to achieve stability and prosperity the government must ensure a platform for women to participate in decision making and hence benefit from the rights they are accorded in Islam By covering a range of perspectives on the economic lives of Muslim women around the world it hopes to shed light on the problems faced and to offer possible solutions to the empowerment of women in the Islamic world Pacific Affairs ,1991 Impediments to Regionalism in Southeast Asia Hans H. Indorf,1984 This book looks at one aspect which appears to inhibit regional cooperation in Southeast Asia bilateral friction of member states of ASEAN The premise is that productive bilateral are the foundation upon which broader regional efforts are built An unwillingness to compromise on one controversial issue can indicate an inclination to be less accommodating with others Obviously there are limits to cooperation beyond which a national government is not prepared to go at a given time What are these obstacles to wider cooperation what are their manifestations and the reasons for their existence Effective Mechanisms for the Enhancement of Technology and Skills in Singapore M. K. Chng,Linda Low,Dr. Tay Boon Nga,Dr. Amina Tyabji ,1986 This is one of four country papers resulting from the ASEAN Regional Studies Programme Relying on primary data collected through field surveys and various materials including those from official sources not readily available in published form the papers deal comprehensively with the problems related to the task of acquiring technology from developed countries specifically Japan In addition to the identification and examination of problems and issues common to the ASEAN countries each paper gives a lucid account of special factors related to the state of technology transfer skills enhancement in the particular country concerned The Struggle over Singapore's Soul Joseph B. Tamney,2017-10-10 No detailed description available for The Struggle over Singapore's Soul Regionalism and Multilateralism Amitav Acharya,2003 These essays written between 1990 and 2000 cover the most significant phase of multilateral institution building in the Asia Pacific region They deal with the emergence of regionalism in Southeast Asia ASEAN's transition to the post Cold War era the role of the ASEAN Regional Forum the engagement of China the changing relationship between sovereignty and regionalism and prospects for the regional institutions such as ASEAN APEC and the ARF after the Asian economic crisis The essays address the most challenging issues of regional order and articulate an institutionalist understanding of international relations in the region This updated second edition includes four new chapters and two revised chapters Let the People Have Him: Chiam See Tong: The Early Years Loke Hoe Yeong,2019-02-05 Selected by Mothership SG as one of the Top 10 local non fiction books of 2014 3rd Prize Winner of Popular Readers Choice Award 2015 English Adult Category Chiam See Tong b 1935 is Singapore's longest serving opposition politician A member of parliament for nearly three decades Chiam is also one of Singapore's most iconic influential and beloved political figures Through his efforts in shaping Potong Pasir into a model constituency the veteran statesman has greatly contributed towards an increasingly pluralistic Singapore When he first entered politics in 1976 there was not a single opposition member in Parliament As the founder of the Singapore Democratic Party and later the Singapore People's Party Chiam has long rallied for the need of an opposition as the essential democratic check on a one party system He is respected for his level headed and non confrontational stance and is the only opposition member to have received public apologies and out of court damages from cabinet ministers of Singapore's ruling People's Action Party Based on extensive interviews family documents and party archives Let the People Have Him is the first biography of an opposition politician from post independence Singapore a biography of a man who through his accomplishments and devotion struggled to build a fairer more balanced and diverse country Tracing the first half of a life fully lived this book sheds light on Chiam s circuitous and colourful route to Parliament at the age of 49 from his revolutionary family background to his days as a champion school swimmer from his political awakening in New Zealand to his stint as an inspiring school teacher in Malaysia from training as a lawyer to his cross continental romance with his wife Lina from standing as an independent candidate in 1976 to winning the Potong Pasir seat in 1984 as the leader of the fledgling Singapore Democratic Party Let the People Have Him draws a humanistic picture of Chiam in his early days as his country changed around him before he was to change it while revealing the guiding values that have made this humble and unassuming man revered for generations to come

Soviet Foreign Policy and Southeast Asia (Routledge Revivals) Leszek Buszynski,2013-09-13 This book focuses on the activity of the Soviet Union in Southeast Asia and the effects of Soviet policy on the region from 1969 to the time of first publication in 1986 In particular Leszek Buszynski examines the rivalry between the Soviet Union and China Soviet presence in Vietnam and the responsive efforts of surrounding regions towards collective security U S policy in the region is a key consideration particularly in terms of American attempts to placate China and encourage Japan to assist in the defence of the region With a concluding assessment of regional trends and possible outcomes this is an important and valuable work for students and scholars with an interest in the history and politics of international diplomacy in Southeast Asia The Journal of the Royal College of General Practitioners ,1983

Imagined Communities Benedict Anderson,2006-11-17 What are the imagined communities that compel men to kill or to die for an idea of a nation This notion of nationhood had its origins in the founding of the Americas but was then adopted and transformed by populist movements in nineteenth century Europe It became the rallying cry for anti Imperialism as well as the abiding explanation for colonialism In this scintillating groundbreaking work of intellectual history Anderson explores how ideas are formed and reformulated at every level from high politics to popular culture and the way that they can make people do extraordinary things In the twenty first century these debates on the nature of the nation state are even more urgent As new nations rise vying for influence and old empires decline we must understand who we are as a community in the face of history and change

The Scripting of A National History Lysa Hong,Jianli Huang,2008-04-01 Rather than presenting another narrative of Singapore history The Scripting of a National History Singapore and Its Pasts studies the constructed nature of the history endorsed by the state which blurs the distinction between what happened in the past and how the state intends that past to be understood The People s Action Party PAP government s unbroken mandate to rule has come in no small part from the way it explains its lineage and record to Singaporeans The power vested in various aspects of Singapore s history is thus examined through a consideration of past and present politics The authors trace state discourses on Singapore history from the decision immediately after independence to recognize the nineteenth century British acquisition of the island as its founding moment to the 1980s and 1990s when an essentially Confucian heritage was recognized under the rubric of Asian values and finally to an emphasis on the history of racial fragility and harmony in response to the threat of terrorism in the twenty first century Embedded within these discourses is the story of the PAP as the heir of the economic dynamics of the pax Britannica as an exponent of the morality and righteousness of the Chinese scholar gentleman and as the firm hand that balances the interests of the majority Chinese against those of the minority populations particularly the Malays The authors examine the underlying template of Singapore history the negotiation with its immigrant past and the popularization of history through conscription of national heroes The chapters range from considering how political leaders claim to be historians by virtue of being the makers of history to the vicissitudes undergone by two originally private homes turned into symbols of Singapore's Chinese modernity The Scripting of a National History Singapore and Its Pasts is highly relevant not only to academics but also for the Singapore general reader interested to see what are meant to be received wisdoms for the citizenry interrogated in a well reasoned and engaging exercise as well as for an international readership to whom Singapore has become a fascinating enigma They may well be intrigued by the anxieties of being Singaporean Federal Register ,1982-12-17
