Sample Book Insights

- 1 There is a myth of singleness which is the belief that being single is bad and unhealthy However there is no problem with being single The problem is with the definition society has given to it which is influenced by the god of this world
- 2 Adam was not alone because he had God as his companion The implication is that Adam was so unique and whole that he did not miss anyone You do not need to marry in order to avoid being alone as long as you have someone else like you to be your companion
- 3 God gave men the right to choose so He would not choose for them Thus it is up to men to choose their spouses Do not become overly spiritual or irrational in this regard
- 4 The word God used when He told Adam it was not good for him to be alone is used in three major foundational definitions exclusive isolated solitary To summarize God's view of singleness we must consider how much we have refined our separateness from others uniqueness to others and our wholeness for others

Hope For the Separated Gary Chapman,2008-09-01 The unfortunate reality is that Christians are separating and divorcing at the same rate as the unbelieving world But does separation have to mean the end You may not feel like reconciling You may not see hope for a reunion But the biblical ideal for a separated couple is reconciliation So how do you do it When doors slam and angry words fly when things just aren't working out and even when your spouse has abandoned your trust there is hope Hope for the Separated will show you through God's Word that your marriage can be restored Recognizing that restoration will not happen for everyone Dr Chapman also gives insightful advice for those who experience the pain of divorce

Magnetic Partners Stephen Betchen,2010-05-18 Do you and your partner argue about the same things over and over again Are you often confused about why your partner is so angry with you Are things getting worse and worse even though you've tried everything you can think of to make them better In this breakthrough guide to repairing romantic relationships therapist and marriage researcher Dr Stephen Betchen presents a powerful new explanation of what leads to this kind of escalating conflict in couples and how you can repair your relationship and find a whole new level of happiness Based on his extensive experience as a couples therapist Dr Betchen has discovered that the prevailing idea that opposites attract is wrong Instead one of the strongest forces that attracts people to one another is that they share a hidden inner conflict in their lives an unconscious struggle within themselves that each of them developed growing up which he calls a master conflict The fact that a couple shares a master conflict acts as an almost magnetic force of attraction but over time master conflicts often begin to push a pair apart many of the very things you most appreciated about each other start to grate on you producing increasing hostility The good news is that by identifying the master conflict that you share you and your partner can take the steps to break the cycle of fighting and come to a new place of understanding and happiness in your relationship Often just the realization that you have this hidden conflict acts as a powerful cure allowing you to appreciate each other once again and to be empathetic about the things that have been irritating you both From his years of work with couples Betchen has identified the nineteen most common master conflicts such as getting your needs met vs caretaking giving vs withholding commitment vs freedom power vs passivity and for each he provides vivid stories of couples who have struggled with them as well as simple tests that help you to identify the core master conflict that is causing your relationship problems Understand the origins of your conflict and how it drew you to your partner Diagnose how the conflict is now pushing you apart Come to new terms with the conflict to save your relationship As Dr Betchen writes knowledge of a master conflict is power and Magnetic Partners is an empowering guide that will help you not only to identify and control your master conflict but also to bring your relationship to a new level based on deeper understanding ultimately leading to greater fulfillment and long term resilience
