Women Artists and the Surrealist Movement Whitney Chadwick, 2021-11-23 A revised edition of Whitney Chadwick's seminal work on the women artists who shaped the Surrealist art movement This pioneering book stands as the most comprehensive treatment of the lives ideas and art works of the remarkable group of women who were an essential part of the Surrealist movement Leonora Carrington Frida Kahlo and Dorothea Tanning among many others embodied their age as they struggled toward artistic maturity and their own liberation of the spirit in the context of the Surrealist revolution Their stories and achievements are presented here against the background of the turbulent decades of the 1920s 30s and 40s and the war that forced Surrealism into exile in New York and Mexico Whitney Chadwick author of the highly acclaimed Women Art and Society interviewed and corresponded with most of the artists themselves in the course of her research Women Artists and the Surrealist Movement now revised with a new foreword by art historian Dawn Ades contains a wealth of extracts from unpublished writings and numerous illustrations never before reproduced Since this book was first published it has acquired the undeniable status of a classic among artists art historians critics and cultural historians It has inspired and necessitated a revision of the story of the Surrealist movement Feminism Art Theory Hilary Robinson, 2015-04-20 Charting over 45 years of feminist debate on the significance of gender in the making and understanding of art the long anticipated new edition of Feminism Art Theory has been extensively updated and reworked Completely revised retaining only one third of the texts of the earlier edition with all other material being new inclusions Brings together 88 revealing texts from North America Europe and Australasia juxtaposing writings from artists and activists with those of academics Embraces a broad range of threads and perspectives from diverse national and global approaches lesbian and queer theory and postmodernism to education and aesthetics Includes many classic texts but is particularly notable for its inclusion of rare and significant material not reprinted elsewhere Provides a uniquely flexible resource for study and research due to its scale and structure each of the seven sections focuses on a specific area of debate with texts arranged chronologically in order to show how issues and arguments developed over time Fake Like Me Barbara Bourland,2019-06-18 From critically acclaimed author Barbara Bourland comes an impressively intelligent thriller nominated for the Edgar Allan Poe Award about a young painter who tracks the mysterious life and death of her role model uncovering strange secrets that lead to the truth of her demise Refinery29 After a fire rips through her loft destroying the seven billboard size paintings meant for her first major exhibition a young painter is left with an impossible task recreate the lost artworks in just three months without getting caught or ruin her fledgling career Homeless and desperate she begs her way into Pine City an exclusive retreat in upstate New York notorious for three things outrageous revelries glamorous artists and the sparkling black lake where brilliant prodigy Carey Logan drowned herself Taking up residence in Carey s former studio the painter works with obsessive delirious focus But when she begins to uncover strange secrets at Pine City and falls hard for Carey s mysterious boyfriend a single thought shadows her every move What really happened to Carey Logan How to Suppress Women's Writing Joanna Russ,1983-09 Discusses the obstacles women have had to overcome in order to become writers and identifies the sexist rationalizations used to trivialize their contributions I Just Want to Paint! Carol McIntyre,2019 How to art instruction book teaching painters how to mix color Women Artists in Interwar France PaulaJ. Birnbaum,2017-07-05 Women Artists in Interwar France Framing Femininities illuminates the importance of the Soci des Femmes Artists Modernes more commonly known as FAM and returns this group to its proper place in the history of modern art In particular this volume explores how FAM and its most famous members Suzanne Valadon Marie Laurencin and Tamara de Lempicka brought a new approach to the most prominent themes of female embodiment the self portrait motherhood and the female nude These women reimaged art s conventions and changed the direction of both art history and the politics of their contemporary art world FAM has been excluded from histories of modern art despite its prominence during the interwar years Paula Birnbaum s study redresses this omission contextualizing the group s legacy in light of the conservative politics of 1930s France The group s artistic response to the reactionary views and images of women at the time is shown to be a key element in the narrative of modernist formalism Although many FAM works are missing one reason for the lack of attention paid to their efforts Birnbaum s extensive research through archives press clippings and first hand interviews with artists families reclaims FAM as an important chapter in the history of art from the interwar years Writing in Space, 1973-2019 Lorraine O'Grady,2020-09-21 Writing in Space 1973 2019 gathers the writings of conceptual artist Lorraine O Grady who for over forty years has investigated the complicated relationship between text and image A firsthand account of O Grady s wide ranging practice this volume contains statements scripts and previously unpublished notes charting the development of her performance work and conceptual photography her art and music criticism that appeared in the Village Voice and Artforum critical and theoretical essays on art and culture including her classic Olympia s Maid and interviews in which O Grady maps expands and complicates the intellectual terrain of her work She examines issues ranging from black female subjectivity to diaspora and race and representation in contemporary art exploring both their personal and their institutional implications O Grady s writings introduced in this collection by critic and curator Aruna D Souza offer a unique window into her artistic and intellectual evolution while consistently plumbing the political possibilities of art Now, Now, Louison Jean

Frémon,2019-03-26 Financial Times Book of the Year The extraordinary artist the spider woman the intellectual the rebel the sly enchantress and the good girl sing together in this exuberant lithe text beautifully translated by Cole Swensen This brilliant portrait of the renowned artist Louise Bourgeois 1911 2010 shows a woman who was devoted to her art and whose life was also that of her century The art world s grande dame and its shameless old lady spinning personal history into works of profound strangeness speaks with her characteristic insolence and wit through a most discreet masterful writer From her childhood in France to her exile and adult life in America to her death this phosphorescent novella describes Bourgeois s inner life as only one artist regarding another can Included as an afterword is Fr mon s essay about his own portrait writing and how he came to know and work with Louise Bourgeois Charting the Afrofuturist Imaginary in African American Art Elizabeth Carmel Hamilton,2022-08-12 This book examines Afrofuturism in African American art focusing specifically on images of black women and how those images expand the discourse of representation in visual culture of the United States This volume defines a visual language of Afrofuturism that includes materiality temporality and black liberation Elizabeth Hamilton discusses the visual progenitors of Afrofuturism In the artworks of Pierre Bennu Sanford Biggers Alison Saar Mequitta Ahuja Robert Pruitt Renee Cox Dawolu Jabari Anderson Alma Thomas and Harriet Powers the fantastic narratives of Afrofuturism are uncovered through in depth case studies These case studies engage with Afrofuturism as a black feminist visual theory that helps to unburden the images of black women from the stereotypical visual scripts that are so common in contemporary visual culture of the United States The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual studies American literature gender studies popular culture and African American studies The Art of Mary Linwood Heidi A.

Strobel,2023-11-30 The Art of Mary Linwood is the first book on Leicester textile artist Mary Linwood 1755 1845 and catalogue of her work When British textile artist and gallery owner Mary Linwood died in 1845 just shy of 90 years old her estate was worth the equivalent of 5 199 822 in today s currency As someone who made but did not sell embroidered replicas of famous artworks after artists such as Gainsborough Reynolds Stubbs and Morland how did she accumulate so much money A pioneering woman in the male dominated art world of late Georgian Britain Linwood established her own London gallery in 1798 that featured copies of well known paintings by these popular artists Featuring props and specially designed rooms for her replicas she ensured that her visitors had an entertaining educational and kinetic tour similar to what Madame Tussaud would do one generation later The gallery s focus on picturesque painters provided her London visitors with an idyllic imaginary journey through the countryside Its emphasis on quintessentially British artists provided a unifying focus for a country that had recently emerged from the threat of Napoleonic invasion This book brings to the fore Linwood s gallery guides and previously unpublished letters to her contemporaries such as Birmingham inventor Matthew Boulton and Queen Charlotte It also includes the first and only catalogue of Linwood's extant and destroyed works By examining Linwood's replicas and their accompanying objects through the lens of material culture the book provides a much needed contribution to the scholarship on women and cultural agency in the early 19th century Hearts of Our People Jill Ahlberg Yehe, Teri Greeves, 2019 Women have long been the creative force behind Native American art yet their individual contributions have been largely unrecognized instead treated as anonymous representations of entire cultures Hearts of Our People Native Women Artists explores the artistic achievements of Native women and establishes their rightful place in the art world This lavishly illustrated book a companion to the landmark exhibition includes works of art from antiquity to the present made in a variety of media from textiles and beadwork to video and digital arts It showcases more than 115 artists from the United States and Canada spanning over one thousand years to reveal the ingenuity and innovation that have always been foundational to the art of Native women Page 4 of cover or, on being the other woman Simone White, 2022-07-11 In or on being the other woman Simone White considers the dynamics of contemporary black feminist life Throughout this book length poem White writes through a hybrid of poetry essay personal narrative and critical theory attesting to the narrative complexities of writing and living as a black woman and artist She considers black social life from art and motherhood to trap music and love as unspeakably troubling and reflects on the degree to which it strands and punishes black women She also explores what constitutes sexual freedom and the rewards and dangers that come with it White meditates on trap music and the ways artists such as Future and Meek Mill and the sonic waves of the drum machine convey desire and the black experience Charting the pressures of ordinary black womanhood White pushes the limits of language showing how those limits can be the basis for new modes of expression Theorising the Artist Interview Lucia Farinati, Jennifer

Thatcher, 2024-08-29 Reflecting on the relationship between artists and their audiences this book examines how artists have presented themselves publicly through interviews and sought to establish a critical voice for themselves Considering the interview as a form of cultural production contributors explore the criteria for determining the artist interview as a distinct field of research in relation to other cultural fields Structured in four parts History and Historiography Subverting the Biographical Model Interviews as Practice and Materiality and Technology the book takes an interdisciplinary approach that encompasses the fields of art history fine art oral history curating media studies and museum conservation By theorising the artist interview as a form of cultural production and embracing it as a co constructed critical practice this volume aims to show and encourage an approach to art history which dismantles old hierarchies in favour of valuing dialogue and collaboration The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history museum studies oral history and historiography

Compositional Subjects Laura Hyun Yi Kang, 2002-06-19 In Compositional Subjects Laura Hyun Yi Kang explores the ways that Asian American women have been figured by mutually imbricated modes of identity formation representation and knowledge production Kang's project is simultaneously interdisciplinary scholarship at its best and a critique of the very disciplinary formations she draws upon. The book opens by tracking the jagged emergence of Asian American women as a distinct social identity over the past three decades. Kang then directs critical attention to how the attempts to compose them as discrete subjects of consciousness, visibility, and action demonstrate a broader ongoing tension between socially particularized subjects and disciplinary knowledges. In addition to the shifting meanings and alignments of Asian American and women, the book examines the discourses, political and economic conditions, and institutional formations that have produced Asian American women as generic authors, as visibly desirable and desiring bodies, as excludable aliens and admissible citizens of the United States, and as the proper labor for transnational capitalism. In analyzing how these enfigurations are constructed and apprehended through a range of modes including autobiography, cinematography, historiography, photography, and ethnography, Kang directs comparative attention to the very terms of their emergence as Asian American women in specific disciplines. Finally, Kang concludes with a detailed examination of selected literary and visual works by Korean women artists located in the United States and Canada, works that creatively and critically contend with the problematics of identification and representation that are explored throughout the book. By underscoring the forceful and contentious struggles that animate all of these compositional gestures, Kang proffers Asian American women as a vexing and productive figure for cultural, political, and epistemological critique.

Old In Art School Nell Painter, 2018-06-19
A New York Times Book Review Editor's Choice Finalist for the National Book Critics Circle Award. A Princeton professor turned artist recounts her late-in-life career change in this feisty and delightfully irreverent memoir about art and coming of age in your 60s. Boston Globe: A glorious achievement, a cup of courage for everyone who wants to change their lives. Tayari Jones, author of An American Marriage. Following her retirement from Princeton University, celebrated historian Dr. Nell Irvin Painter surprised everyone in her life by returning to school in her sixties to earn a BFA and MFA in painting. In Old in Art School, she travels from her beloved Newark to the prestigious Rhode Island School of Design, finds meaning in the artists she loves, even as she comes to understand how they may be undervalued, and struggles with the unstable balance between the pursuit of art and the inevitable, sometimes painful, demands of a life fully lived. How are women and artists seen and judged by their age, looks, and race? What does it mean when someone says, "You will never be an artist"? Who defines what an artist is, and all that goes with such an identity, and how are these ideas tied to our shared conceptions of beauty, value, and difference? Bringing to bear incisive insights from two careers, Painter weaves a frank, funny, and often surprising tale of her move from academia to art in this glorious achievement, bighearted and critical, insightful and entertaining. This book is a cup of courage for everyone who wants to change their lives. Tayari Jones, author of An American Marriage.

Marisa Mori and the Futurists Jennifer Griffiths, 2023-01-12. This book introduces a compelling new personality to the modernist canon: Marisa Mori, 1900-1985, who became the only female contributor to The Futurist Cookbook (1932) with her recipe for Italian Breasts in the Sun Providing something more complex than a traditional biographical account Griffiths presents a feminist critique of Mori's art converging on issues of gender culture and history to offer new critical perspectives on Italian modernism If subsequently written out of modernist memory Mori was once at the center of the Futurism movement in Italy yet she worked outside the major European capitals and fluctuated between traditional figurative subjects and abstract experimentation As a result her in-between pictures can help to re-think the margins of modernism By situating Mori's most significant artworks in the critical context of interwar Fascism and highlighting her artistic contributions before during and after her Futurist decade Griffiths contributes to a growing body of knowledge on the women who participated in the Italian Futurist movement In doing so she explores a woman artist's struggle for modernity among the Italian Futurists in an age of Fascism

The Oxford Handbook of the Bible in America Paul Gutjahr, 2017-11-01 Early Americans have long been considered A People of the Book Because the nickname was coined primarily to invoke close associations between Americans and the Bible it is easy to overlook the central fact that it was a book not a geographic location a monarch or even a shared language that has served as a cornerstone in countless investigations into the formation and fragmentation of early American culture Few books can lay claim to such powers of civilization altering influence Among those which can are sacred books and for Americans principal among such books stands the Bible This Handbook is designed to address a noticeable void in resources focused on analyzing the Bible in America in various historical moments and in relationship to specific institutions and cultural expressions It takes seriously the fact that the Bible is both a physical object that has exercised considerable totemic power as well as a text with a powerful intellectual design that has inspired everything from national religious and educational practices to a wide spectrum of artistic endeavors to our nation's politics and foreign policy This Handbook brings together a number of established scholars as well as younger scholars on the rise to provide a scholarly overview rich with bibliographic resources to those interested in the Bible's role in American cultural formation
