Gospel-Centered Discipleship Jonathan K. Dodson,2012-03-31 Reflecting on the practice of disciple making in young adult college graduate and local church contexts Jonathan Dodson has discerned some common pitfalls For many discipleship is reduced to a form of religious performance before God For others it devolves into spiritual license and a loose adherence to spiritual facts Both approaches distort biblical motivations for Christian obedience and are in need of reform By explaining various motivations for discipleship Dodson charts a biblically faithful grace driven alternative Additionally he provides a practical model for creating gospel centered discipleship groups small reproducible missional gender specific groups of believers that fight for faith together This book blends both theology and practice to inspire and equip Christians to effectively fight sin keep Jesus central and make gospel centered discipleship a way of life Both new and growing Christians will learn to trust the gospel in community as they fight together for holiness as well as how to start gospel centered community groups in any local church

The Book of Daniel André LaCocque, 2018-06-13 This is the second edition of a 1979 commentary on the book of Daniel The commentary is completely revised and the introduction in particular is here much extended and addresses fundamental questions regarding the book of Daniel and the apocalyptic movement it inaugurates with 1 Enoch Daniel is an indispensable trove and reference about issues like the apocalyptic vision of world's periodized history the notion of Son of Man messianism without a messiah the belief in resurrection the kingdom of God the centrifugal spread of divine revelation and the positive role of the Jewish diaspora This edition is meant for scholars college and university researchers and students of the Bible of the Old Testament and New Testament in general
