Sister Carrie American Literature Dalkey Archive:

Paradiso 1st. Dalkey Archive Ed José Lezama Lima, 2000 A classic of modern literature Paradiso was first published in Cuba in 1966 Written by Cuba's most important poet it tells the story of Jose Cemi who in the wake of his father's death comes of age in turn of the century Cuba Weaving the exhilarations and defeats of love into extraordinarily erotic verbal tapestries Lezama Lima narrates Cemi's search for his dead father and for an understanding of love and the powers of the mind BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Sister Carrie Lauren Fairbanks, 1993 Depraved characters parade themselves and their crass literary leanings many keep journals out of which Carrie is revealed with stylistic pyrotechnics Fairbanks's scrappy fantastic debauched characters reveal themselves as well in hot rapid monologue and dialogue The Cambridge Companion to American Realism and Naturalism Donald Pizer, 1995-06-30 This Companion examines a number of issues related to the terms realism and naturalism The introduction seeks both to discuss the problems in the use of these two terms in relation to late nineteenth century fiction and to describe the history of previous efforts to make the terms expressive of American writing of this period The Companion includes ten essays which fall into four categories essays on the historical context of realism and naturalism by Louis Budd and Richard Lehan essays on critical approaches to the movements since the early 1970s by Michael Anesko essays on the efforts to expand the canon of realism and naturalism by Elizabeth Ammons and a full scale discussion of ten major texts from W D Howell's The Rise of Silas Lapham to Jack London's The Call of the Wild by John W Crowley Tom Quirk J C Levenson Blanche Gelfant Barbara Hochman and Jacqueline Tavernier Courbin Troia Bonnie Bremser, 2007 In this newly rediscovered memoir Bonnie Bremser ex wife of Beat poet Ray Bremser chronicles her life on the run from the law in the early Sixties When Ray fled to Mexico in 1961 to avoid imprisonment for armed robbery a crime he claimed he did not commit Bonnie followed with their baby daughter Rachel In a foreign country with no money and little knowledge of the language Bonnie was forced into a life of prostitution to support her family and their drug habit Just twenty three years old Bonnie was young and inexperienced but very much in love with her husband indeed she was ready to go to any lengths in an attempt to keep their small family alive and together even if it meant becoming une troia When Blackness Rhymes with Blackness (Dalkey Archive Scholarly Series) Rowan Ricardo Phillips, 2010-07-20 Lyrical provocative and highly original a groundbreaking book by one of America's smartest young poet critics In When Blackness Rhymes with Blackness Rowan Ricardo Phillips pushes African American poetry to its limits by unraveling our desire to think of African American poetry as African American poetry Phillips reads African American poetry as inherently allegorical and thus a successful shorthand for the survival of a poetry but unsuccessful shorthand for the sustenance of its poems Arguing in favor of the counterintuitive imagination Phillips demonstrates how these poems tend to refuse their logical insertion into a larger vision and instead dwell indefinitely at the crux between poetry and race where when blackness rhymes with blackness it is left for us to determine whether this juxtaposition contains a vital difference or is just mere repetition From When Blackness Rhymes with Blackness Phillis Wheatley like the epigraphs that writers fit into the beginning of their texts is first and foremost a cultural sign a performance It is either in the midst of that performance at a concert or in that performance s retrospection in a cafe that a retrievable form emerges from the work of a poet whose biography casts a far longer shadow than her poems ever have Next to Langston Hughes of all African American poets Wheatley s visual image carries the most weight recognizable to a larger audience by her famed frontispiece her statue in Boston and the drama behind the publication of her book Poems on Various Subjects Religious and Moral All of this will be fruit for discussion in the pages that follow Yet I will also be discussing the proleptic nature with which African American literature talks if you will Phillis Wheatley

The Shutter of Snow Emily Holmes Coleman,1997 In a prose form as startling as its content The Shutter of Snow portrays the post partum psychosis of Marthe Gail who after giving birth to her son is committed to an insane asylum Believing herself to be God she maneuvers through an institutional world that is both sad and terrifying echoing the worlds of One Flew Over the Cuckoo s Nest and The Snake Pit Based upon the author s own experience after the birth of her son in 1924 The Shutter of Snow retains all the energy it had when first published in 1930

Tlooth Harry Mathews,1998 This novel begins in a Russian prison camp at a baseball game featuring the defective Baptists versus the Fideists There is a plot of sorts one of revenge surrounding a doctor who in removing a bone spur from our narrator manages to amputate a ring and index finger a significant surgical error considering that the narrator is or was a violinist When Dr Roak is released from prison our narrator escapes in order to begin the pursuit and thus begins a digressive journey from Afghanistan to Venice then on to India and Morocco and France All of this takes place amid Mathews s fictional concern and play with games puzzles arcana and stories within stories

God Head Scott Zwiren,1996 The harrowing life of a manic depressive by a writer who has been through it One moment he is God the next he is cowering in fear Reality comes and goes as do jobs and relationships The worst is there is no cure A debut in fiction

Siamese Stig Sæterbakken,2010 This is a brutally comic portrait of marriage taken to extremes reminiscent of the work of Samuel Becket and Thomas Bernhard It tells how Edwin Mortens who is almost blind and paralyzed from the waist down dedicates his days to chewing gum and screaming at his wife

The Jade Cabinet Rikki Ducornet,1994 Continues the author s Tetrology of the Elements with an air themed novel set in Victorian England

The Book of Jokes Momus,2009 Imagine a universe where every joke you ve ever heard is solid real and occasionally dangerous and all happening one after the other to the same small group of people Detailing a series of filthy and ludicrous episodes in the life of a single family saddled with a super eccentric sexually rapacious father The Book of Jokes tells the story of the youth and education of a bland young boy doomed to record in an incongruously serious autobiographical mode all the ridiculous incidents befalling his household With their lives dictated by set ups and punchlines the boy s family quickly becomes luridly dysfunctional and he realizes that the only way to escape his tragicomic fate is by trying to take control of the joke telling himself Channeling the spirits of Chaucer Rabelais Flann O'Brien and Gian Francesco Poggio Bracciolini the Vatican secretary who compiled the first known book of jokes in 1451 The Book of Jokes is a happy raspberry in the face of life as we know and tell it

Running Away Jean-Philippe Toussaint, 2009 An unnamed man travels to Shanghai ostensibly on vacation but finds himself increasingly unmoored from his life and identity Caught in a jet lag reality he stumbles from adventure to adventure allowing himself to be led not by sense or instinct but by the onrush of experience until a call from home jars him back into his life with all of its own confusions In Running Away the Chaplinesque slapstick of Jean Philippe Toussaint's acclaimed early works The Bathroom and Camera is replaced by an ever unfolding fabric of coincidences and misapprehensions both particularly modern and utterly real The mature Toussaint shows himself to be no less ingenious an inventor of existential dilemmas but with a new surprising tenderness and a deepened concern for the inexpressible immediacy and sensuality of human experience Book Jacket

Our Circus Presents-- Lucian Dan Teodorovici, 2009 Every day the Birdman performs the same ritual he climbs out onto his window ledge to see if he can manage to kill himself and never does The Birdman is a member of a loose knit group of failed suicides each pursuing absurd ways to end their lives one saving up lost dog reward money to buy enough good whiskey to drink himself to death another hoping to contract a fatal disease by sleeping with as many women as possible Just when it seems these routines will continue indefinitely the Birdman meets a professional suicide the dangerous and inscrutable man with orange suspenders who makes a living by trying to hang himself whenever he sees a potential rescuer approaching This chance encounter which leads at last to a real death will force the Birdman to confront the roots of his desire to escape from life and to see firsthand that dying is more than just a rehearsal Book Jacket

Richard Ford and the Fiction of Masculinities Josep M. Armengol, 2010 Richard Ford and the Fiction of Masculinities demonstrates how contemporary U S novelist Richard Ford winner of the Pulitzer Prize for literature rewrites gender and in particular masculinity from highly subversive and innovative perspectives Josep M Armengol analyzes the construction as well as the de construction of masculinity in all of Ford's major fictional texts to date ranging from A Piece of My Heart to The Sportswriter to The Lay of the Land Given its simultaneous critique of traditional masculinity and its depiction of alternative models of being a man Ford's fiction is shown to be particularly interesting from a men's studies perspective which aims not only to undermine patriarchal masculinity but also to look for new non hierarchical and more egalitarian models of being a man in contemporary U S culture and literature By framing Ford's contemporary representations of masculinity within a more general context of American literature this book reveals how his texts continue along a trajectory of earlier American fiction while they also re examine masculinity in new more complex ways Richard Ford and the Fiction of Masculinities contributes to the much needed revision of men and masculinities in U S literature and especially Richard Ford's fiction where constructions of gender and masculinity remain paradoxically enough largely unexplored

The Confidence-man Herman Melville, 2007 A scathing razor sharp satire set on a New Orleans bound

riverboat The Confidence Man exposes the fraudulent optimism of so many American idols and idealists Ralph Waldo Emerson Henry David Thoreau and P T Barnum in particular and draws a dark vision of a country being swallowed by its illusions of progress Why is Dalkey Archive doing yet another edition of The Confidence Man And why is it doing Melville at all First this edition originally published by Bobbs Merrill over forty years ago contains remarkable annotations by H Bruce Franklin intended for both the general reader and the scholar It s an edition we have long admired More importantly we believe that The Confidence Man is America s first postmodern novel game like darkly comic and completely inventive

The Employment of English Michael Bérubé,1998 Although few taxpayers and legislators care whether the nation s English professors are doing justice to identifying the beautiful and the sublime conversely the image of English departments plays a major role in determining public attitudes toward colleges and college faculty Investigating the ramifications of current debates this book provides the clearest and most comprehensive account of this controversy to date Ishmael

Reed Ishmael Reed,2009-09-02 The award winning plays of one of the most celebrated and innovative American writers of our time Ishmael Reed s career as one of our great playwrights has long been eclipsed by his other work Here published for the first time Reed s plays follow the ancient tradition of using the theater as a forum in which the official versions of our history can be critiqued Dealing with subjects that mainstream theatergoers might find disturbing homelessness the arbitrary entrapment of a black politician the excesses of the radical feminist movement the use of black conservatives to promote right wing agendas the exploitation of blacks and Africans as unsuspecting guinea pigs by the pharmaceutical industry and the hypocrisy of the Christian church Reed s plays are a pungent antidote to the watered down world of contemporary pop culture where Reed argues minority voices remain as marginalized and stigmatized as they were a hundred years ago The System of Vienna Gert Jonke,2009 The System of Vienna details Gert Janke s travels through Vienna by streetcar reporting the bizarre and frustrating encounters he experiences as he progresses and meanwhile moving not just from trolley stop to trolley stop but through life as well from innocence to disillusionment birth to death Ionke meets a paranoiac fish wholesaler who believes he is directing all of Austrian politics from his little stall a stamp collector in such deadly earnest he hopes to be appointed to a professorship in philately and a compulsive talker who has developed a rigorous economic philosophy out of the most common objects to be found in a Vienna neighborhood Slowly increasing the comic and fantastic elements in his story until they overwhelm all pretense to autobiography culminating in a strangely touching love scene between Ionke and a caryatid The System of Vienna reminds us that the very act of describing a life turns it into fiction Book Jacket Jack Kerouac Is Pregnant Aurelie Sheehan,1994 Fifteen stories on women In The Dove a wealthy widow pressured by her family to marry a rich man spends life fixated on an affair she had a week before her wedding in Look at the Moon a woman reflects I ve had my heart broken a few times I ve been in love with the most garlicky individuals I fact I have a fascination with the mediocre Contemporary Russian Poetry Evgeniï Bunimovich,J. Kates,2008 Prominent Moscow poet Evgeny Bunimovich selected representative work from forty four living Russian poets born after 1945 to be translated and published in this bilingual edition The collection ranges from the mordant post Soviet irony of Igor Irteniev to the fresh voices of poets like Marianna Geide and Anna Russ young women just beginning to make themselves heard The book includes the work of Booker Prize winner Sergey Gandlevsky and several winners of the Andrey Bely Prize and Brodsky Fellowships Most of these poems and many of the poets have previously been unpublished in the West
