Siwiti A Whales Story Orca Classic:

Siwiti, a Whale's Story, 1991 First year in the life of a killer whale born off the west coast of Canada 8 yrs Canadian Books in Print Marian Butler, 2000 Not on My Watch Alexandra Morton, 2021-03-23 NATIONAL BESTSELLER Alexandra Morton has been called the Jane Goodall of Canada because of her passionate thirty year fight to save British Columbia's wild salmon Her account of that fight is both inspiring in its own right and a roadmap of resistance Alexandra Morton came north from California in the early 1980s following her first love the northern resident orca In remote Echo Bay in the Broughton Archipelago she found the perfect place to settle into all she had ever dreamed of a lifetime of observing and learning what these big brained mammals are saying to each other She was lucky enough to get there just in time to witness a place of true natural abundance and learned how to thrive in the wilderness as a scientist and a single mother Then in 1989 industrial aquaculture moved into the region chasing the whales away Her fisherman neighbours asked her if she would write letters on their behalf to government explaining the damage the farms were doing to the fisheries and one thing led to another Soon Alex had shifted her scientific focus to documenting the infectious diseases and parasites that pour from the ocean farm pens of Atlantic salmon into the migration routes of wild Pacific salmon and then to proving their disastrous impact on wild salmon and the entire ecosystem of the coast Alex stood against the farms first representing her community then alone and at last as part of an uprising that built around her as ancient Indigenous governance resisted a province and a country that wouldn't obey their own court rulings She has used her science many acts of protest and the legal system in her unrelenting efforts to save wild salmon and ultimately the whales a story that reveals her own doggedness and bravery but also shines a bright light on the ways other humans doggedly resist the truth Here she brilliantly calls those humans to account for the sake of us all Canadiana, 1991 Heart of the Raincoast Alexandra Morton, Bill Proctor, 2016-05-03 Originally published in 1998 this updated edition has a brand new cover and interior design with a new foreword by Alexandra Morton Billy Proctor was born in 1934 and has spent his entire life in a remote coastal community called Echo Bay BC on an island off northern Vancouver Island Proctor has always done the time honoured work of generations of upcoast men hand logging fishing clam digging repairing boats beachcombing But Billy eventually began to notice that the thriving runs of Pacific salmon oolichans and herring that he remembers from his early years were vanishing some to near extinction and he understood that it was time to take action Heart of the Raincoast is the fascinating story of Billy Proctor's life and the wealth of knowledge and understanding that can only be gained from living in such close proximity to nature The writing is funny touching and honest and offers an engaging insider's view not only of the salmon whales eagles and independent people who populate Canada's wild and lovely coastal rainforest but on what we need to do to keep it as nature intended Children's Books In Print 1998 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1998 Children's Books in Print, 2007, 2006 Children's Books in Print R R Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1999-12 A Stain Upon the Sea Stephen Hume, 2004 Winner of the 2005
