

I must come out. It must be expressed. The saddest thing in the world is when an idea stops just an idea. No, to avoid such misery, here you are building the scariest thing in the world: a blank canvas. Nothing's scarier than a thing you haven't done yet.

Art is greater than you. It is universal. Though while your goal may be persuasive, your mission is solitary. To create is to be alone. It is the creation, not the creator, which mingles with the world.

There is no end to creating. So, where to begin? Start with a feeling. Anger will do. Rage, cry, struggle, whatever, but never rest. You'll have to do better than just breathing onto the page like a fool.

This is not a gallery. This is not going to hang above the hearth. This is a place to practice. 'Practice makes perfect' is a stupid thing people say. Do not be stupid, and never be perfect. But practice all the same.
